

Comment on implementation of recommendations
University of Haifa
Professor Jonathan Rabinowitz
January 16, 2011

Departments of Social Work and Human Services

Both departments provided thoughtful and thorough responses that strongly suggest that the evaluation process was a catalyst for positive change. All major areas noted by the committee were addressed. I have no further comments.